

Biogen Specific Teaching Material

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

Questions & Answers

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

1. A _____ workplace safety attitude increases cost of production and turnover rate, and reduces employee safety, morale, quality, profitability, and business goodwill.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

1. A NEGATIVE workplace safety attitude increases cost of production and turnover rate, and reduces employee safety, morale, quality, profitability, and business goodwill.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

2. A _____ workplace safety attitude promotes an accident-free work environment that ensures higher efficiency, best quality, saves budget on cost of accident, and raises employee morale, business profit and goodwill.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

2. A POSITIVE workplace safety attitude promotes an accident-free work environment that ensures higher efficiency, best quality, saves budget on cost of accident, and raises employee morale, business profit and goodwill.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

3. What influences an employee's choice of actions and response to challenges, incentives and rewards?

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

3. Positive workplace safety attitudes influence an employee's choice of actions and response to challenges, incentives and rewards.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

4. As soon as a safety deficiency is identified, it is one's duty to report it immediately.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

4. True.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

5. When employees are engaged and involved in selecting PPE and have some purchasing power for safety equipment, they will be more likely to wear it consistently and compliantly.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

5. True. (According to the text)

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

6. Supervisors tend to influence employees by their attitudes and behaviours whether positive or negative.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

6. True. The final sentence in the text elicits that.

7. Policies which are heavily focussed on outlining the consequences of error-making may also create a lack of trust in employees.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

7. True.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

8. An instructional video and instruction manual is more effective than hands-on practice.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

8. False. Hands-on practice is essential for such types of training.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

9. An accumulative disciplinary programme (e.g. first offense = verbal warning, severe or repeated disregard for safety = termination) is the most effective.

Basic Principles of Safety — Workplace Safety Attitudes

9. True. (According to the text)

Thank you for your attention!

D-SCHULE – Your Language School

D-SCHULE
Domenika Hüsler
info@d-schule.ch
+41 79 730 52 35